Hi Jonathan

I am still waiting for Stripe to provide us with the log-in information as that is what was discussed on yesterdays call.

Thank you.

All,

Stripe did not attend today's hearing, so we're unaware of any modification to the TRO. But to the extent it remains relevant, one option to mitigate chargeback risk is to enroll Chargebacks911, a vendor that Stripe works with. In short, they implement an automated process for challenging chargebacks that are invalid for technical reasons, such as submission outside of an applicable period. Let us know if helpful to discuss.

Thanks,

Jonathan
